HOUSE RESOLUTION 368

Offered by Representative Daniels:

WHEREAS, Media reports have revealed that Illinois nursing homes, long-term care facilities, community integrated living arrangements, and supportive living centers are housing 161 criminal parolees and sex offenders without adequate disclosure and supervision; and

WHEREAS, The Department of Corrections is not required by law to disclose the identities of parolees and ailing prisoners residing in nursing homes, long-term care facilities, Community Integrated Living Arrangements, and supportive living centers; and

WHEREAS, Criminal incidents against vulnerable residents have been increasingly reported to law enforcement officials; and

WHEREAS, Other states, such as Alabama, Arkansas, California, Florida, Georgia, Minnesota, and Oklahoma, are considering legislation to protect residents; and

WHEREAS, It is imperative the General Assembly take immediate action to ensure the safety of the residents residing in these nursing homes, long-term care facilities, Community Integrated Living Arrangements, and supportive living centers; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that a comprehensive investigation should be conducted to protect vulnerable residents of nursing homes, long-term care facilities, community integrated living arrangements, and supportive living centers and ease the concerns of family members; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Developmental Disabilities and Mental Illness Committee is urged to convene hearings to examine the issue, gather expert testimony from qualified representatives of the long-term care industry, the Department of Corrections, the Department on Aging, the Department of Public Health, Department of Public Aid, and advocates of long-term care residents, and propose solutions that will safeguard and protect the residents of Illinois' long-term care facilities.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 380

Offered by Representative Madigan:

WHEREAS, The work of Catholic Charities of Illinois to serve those most in need began in the mid-1800s when Catholic orphanages began to appear in many areas of the State, which later became part of the Catholic Charities of Illinois network; and

WHEREAS, Today, Catholic Charities of Illinois are present throughout the State in each diocese of Illinois (Belleville, Chicago, Joliet, Peoria, Rockford, and Springfield), continuing the tradition of serving the most vulnerable in need through a broad range of services; and

WHEREAS, The six Catholic Charities of Illinois are Catholic organizations that provide services to the most vulnerable in need of all faiths, through the work of over 4,500 employees, in accordance with the mission to serve the poor, a mission that originates from and is rooted in the Gospel values and Catholic Social Teaching, thus fulfilling the role of the Catholic Church to provide care to all those in need; and

WHEREAS, Catholic Charities of Illinois administer over 230 programs at over 200 sites across the State, providing direct services to over one million people; and

WHEREAS, Catholic Charities of Illinois are supported by one of the largest volunteer networks in the State, with nearly 10,000 volunteers; and

WHEREAS, Catholic Charities of Illinois have long been partners with the State of Illinois in providing services to children, families, seniors, immigrants, the homeless, and the sick; therefore, be it

AGREED RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were offered and placed on the Calendar on the order of Agreed Resolutions.

Offered by Representative Osterman:

WHEREAS, The members of the Illinois House of Representatives were saddened to learn of the death of William "Les" Brown of Chicago on April 11, 2005; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Brown was the founder of the Chicago Coalition for the Homeless, which he headed for over two decades; the coalition, founded in 1980, strived towards improving the lives of homeless and impoverished people throughout Chicago; and

WHEREAS, William "Les" Brown was born William Leslie Brown in 1940, in Tampa, Florida; he grew up on a small farm in Doraville, Georgia, where he developed his love for the outdoors; and

WHEREAS, He earned a bachelor's degree from Erskine College in South Carolina; he also received a master's degree in social work from Loyola University Chicago; in between receiving the two degrees, he enlisted in the Air Force and served as a medical corpsman in England; and

WHEREAS, He was the first president of the Chicago Coalition for the Homeless, later serving as its executive director; from 1990 until his death, he served as the coalition's director of policy; the coalition helped host the first national conference on homelessness in Chicago in 1983; and

WHEREAS, In 1984, he received a heart transplant at Loyola University Medical Center in Maywood; he was the hospital's longest surviving heart transplant recipient; and

WHEREAS, He was a founder and former president of the Illinois Coalition for the Homeless; he was also a founding board member of the newspaper, Streetwise, as well as a board member for other local and state groups advocating for improving the lives of the homeless; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Brown served as director of social work services for the Travelers and Immigrants Aid Society, which is now the Heartland Alliance; he also documented the growing number of homeless people living at the Greyhound bus terminal, Union Station, and O'Hare Airport; and

WHEREAS, His accomplishments include leading protests that led to low-income apartment units being established in the government-subsidized West Loop Presidential Towers complex; he utilized a federal law to successfully acquire lakefront land near Navy Pier; the land he acquired was originally to be used as gardens to provide work for homeless people, but was later exchanged for land on the South Side that became the "Growing Home" agriculture job training program; and

WHEREAS, He also helped acquire 10 acres of land in Marseilles that is currently farmed by homeless people from Chicago; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Brown is survived by his wife, Diana Leifer; his son, Jesse; his daughter, Mari Herreras-Zinman; his sister, Claudia Lewis; and his two grandchildren; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we mourn the passing of William "Les" Brown along with all who knew and loved him and extend our sincere condolences to his family, friends, and community; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to the family of William "Les" Brown as an expression of our deepest sympathy.

Offered by Representative Osterman:

WHEREAS, The AIDS Foundation of Chicago (AFC) is celebrating its 20th anniversary this year; and
WHEREAS, The AFC was founded by four dedicated community activists and physicians, Dr. Ron Sable, Dr. Renslow Sherer, Judy Carter, and William Young, in 1985 to respond to the emerging devastation of AIDS; the mission of the organization is to lead the fight against HIV/AIDS and improve the lives of people affected by the epidemic; and

WHEREAS, The problem of HIV/AIDS continues to impact communities in Illinois, nationally, and around the world; an estimated 35,000 Illinoisans are living with HIV/AIDS, and about 70% of these individuals live in Chicago, Cook County, and the collar counties, the AIDS Foundation of Chicago's service area; over half of reported AIDS cases in 2003 were among men who have sex with men, and over one-quarter were among injection drug users; and

WHEREAS, People of color are disproportionately impacted by HIV/AIDS; African-Americans make up just over half of the State's reported AIDS cases, and one in six is Latino; two-thirds of Illinois women living with HIV/AIDS are African-American; and

WHEREAS, The AFC created the Service Providers Council in 1986 to bring together community agencies in the fight against AIDS; the Service Providers Council today unites agencies from a nine-county Chicago metropolitan area delivering services to people with HIV/AIDS; the Service Providers Council shares best practices and ensures efficient service delivery and consistency of services; and

WHEREAS, The AFC convened the region's HIV/AIDS case management system, which is renowned as a national model in service integration; the system serves HIV-positive people who struggle with homelessness, mental illness, addiction, poverty, and other health concerns; more than 5,000 individuals receive assistance from the system's 165 case managers working at 49 agencies across metropolitan Chicago; and

WHEREAS, The AFC's grant making program began in 1988 and is today the Midwest's largest source of private funding for local AIDS organizations; the program has distributed more than $14 million for HIV prevention, care, and advocacy projects, and in 2004 provided 61 local AIDS agencies $1.2 million in grant funding; and

WHEREAS, Each month the AFC mobilizes thousands of AIDS advocates to address local, State, and federal HIV/AIDS policy issues; disseminating accurate and timely information about trends in the epidemic is an important way the AFC builds public and private support for the fight against HIV/AIDS; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we congratulate the AIDS Foundation of Chicago on the occasion of the agency's 20th anniversary; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to the AIDS Foundation of Chicago as an expression of our esteem and with best wishes for the organization's future success.

Offered by Representative Osterman:

WHEREAS, The members of the Illinois House of Representatives offer their sincere appreciation and gratitude to Judith R. Hernandez for her lifetime of service to education and social work both in Illinois and across the country; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Hernandez holds a Bachelor of Science and a Master of Arts from Loyola University and a Master of Arts in Guidance and Counseling and a Master of Arts in Administration from Northeastern Illinois University; and

WHEREAS, She has been a lifetime educator, beginning at Senn High School as a teacher of Spanish and later as the coordinator of Senn's first multilingual program; she has served as a counselor, special education case manager, and chair of the Counseling Department; she also is a nationally certified counselor and has presented workshops on counseling teenagers on multi-cultural issues; and

WHEREAS, She became an assistant principal at Senn High School and directed the design and implementation of the Metal Works Program, which is a nationally recognized and respected school-to-work project integrating academic subjects with vocational education; and

WHEREAS, She has received numerous awards during her career for her work in school-to-work programs involving business leaders, labor, students, parents, and community; she received the Citizens Committee Annual Dedication Award for Excellence in Teaching and Meritorious Service to the Local Community; she received the Proyecto Pa'Lante Award from Northeastern Illinois University; she was the recipient of the Oppenheimer Family Foundation Award for Meritorious Service and Guidance and Counseling to CPS Students; she also received a National award given to principals for outstanding work with Service Learning; and

WHEREAS, In 2001, due to Mrs. Hernandez's leadership and commitment to education as principal, Senn High School was selected by the Fry Foundation to receive a 1.2 million dollar grant; Senn High School was selected based on Mrs. Hernandez's continued efforts towards improving the school's education standards and moving the school forward; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Hernandez is married and she and her husband have two sons; she remains committed to her family and to being an educator and advocate for young people; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we honor Judith R. Hernandez for her many accomplishments as an educator and advocate for young people and congratulate her on her retirement and express our gratitude for her many years of public service; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to Judith R. Hernandez as an expression of our respect and esteem.

Offered by Representative Washington:

WHEREAS, Lake County schools continue to raise funds for victims of the devastation left behind by the December tsunami in Southeast Asia; and

WHEREAS, The 375 students at Novak-King School in North Chicago took on a major fundraising effort and raised approximately $740, which was supplemented by Novak-King's Parent Teacher Organization to make it an even $1,000; and

WHEREAS, The students recently presented the check for $1,000 to the United Way of Lake County, which will be forwarded to the United Way International South Asia Response Fund; and

WHEREAS, Because all of the students did so well raising funds, the entire school was awarded a non-uniform day by Principal Katerina Fey; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we applaud the Novak-King School students' humanitarian efforts on behalf of the tsunami victims; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to Novak-King School as an expression of our appreciation for their selflessness and generosity.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 366

Offered by Representative Washington:

WHEREAS, The Golden Apple Foundation recently named Kaitlin Colver of Waukegan High School a Golden Apple Scholar of Illinois; and

WHEREAS, The Golden Apple Scholars program annually identifies, recruits, and prepares 100 talented students for teaching careers in high-need schools throughout Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Colver was one of five outstanding Lake County high school students who were honored, along with 95 other state scholars, at an April 9, 2005 reception at The Field Museum in Chicago; and

WHEREAS, In exchange for financial assistance for four years to attend one of 53 public and private universities across the State, enrollment in summer programs that include teaching internships and enhanced teacher preparation, and continual mentoring by Golden Apple Award-winning teachers, scholars must agree to teach for five years in an Illinois school that serves low-income students or has below-par test scores; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we support and acknowledge academic excellence and offer our sincerest congratulations to Kaitlin Colver for her achievement, which has brought much honor to herself, her family, Waukegan High School, and Waukegan Community Unit School District No. 60; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to Kaitlin Colver as an expression of our admiration and esteem.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 367

WHEREAS, The members of the Illinois House of Representatives were saddened to learn of the death of William Leslie Brown of Chicago; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Brown was born on November 24, 1940; he grew up in Doraville, Georgia, before moving in 1968 to Chicago where he subsequently became a strong leader and articulate advocate for homeless families and individuals and for low-income people who struggle to avoid homelessness; and

WHEREAS, In 1980, with the help of Jewish Council on Urban Affairs, Catholic Charities, and his then employer the Travelers and Immigrants Aid Society, Les Brown founded the Chicago Coalition for the Homeless and became its first board president; and

WHEREAS, In 1988, he left his position as Director of Social Work Services at the Travelers and Immigrants Aid Society to become Executive Director of the Chicago Coalition for the Homeless; and

WHEREAS, He continued to serve the Chicago Coalition for the Homeless as Director of Policy and was the Coalition's chief strategist and "idea man" until his untimely death from cancer on April 11; and

WHEREAS, In his various positions of leadership, Les Brown employed his great sense of humor coupled with gentleness and respect for all individuals; and

WHEREAS, He became an accomplished jazz and blues pianist and used his musical skills to draw people to share his concern for poor and low-income people; and

WHEREAS, He artfully combined work and fun and repeatedly expressed his thanks and appreciation for the skills of medical professionals and a gift of a transplanted heart in 1984 that enabled him to work and live fully for an additional 20-plus years; and

government to give it land in Chicago and then in Marseilles, where it teaches agriculture skills and operates a model job-training program that has graduated 60 formerly homeless individuals over the past four years; and

WHEREAS, He was a founder and former president of the Illinois Coalition for the Homeless, a founding board member of the weekly newspaper, Streetwise, and a steering committee member of the Homeless Prevention Project, the Illinois Coordinating Council on the Homeless, and the City Task Force on Homelessness; a board member of the Public Welfare Coalition and Center for Economic Progress; a member of the Chicago Low-Income Housing Trust Fund Group and the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services' Advisory Committee on Youth Homelessness, and a former board member of the National Coalition for the Homeless; and

WHEREAS, His passing will be deeply felt by his family, friends, and co-workers, especially his wife, Diana Leifer; his son, Jesse Brown, and his daughter, Mari Herreras-Zinman; his sister, Claudia Lewis; and his grandson and granddaughter; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we mourn the death of Les Brown along with all who knew and loved him and extend our sincerest condolences to his family and friends; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to his family as an expression of our deepest sympathy.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 55

Offered by Representative Cross:

WHEREAS, Andrew H. Melczer, Ph.D., who passed away on February 7, 2005, served the Illinois State Medical Society (ISMS), its member physicians, and all the citizens of the State of Illinois for more than 20 years; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Melczer monitored the evolving health care system of Illinois and the United States, developed ISMS legislative responses to ensure that physicians could practice quality medical care, and analyzed proposed legislation related to the health care system; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Melczer provided support to physicians seeking to understand and respond to the evolving health care marketplace; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Melczer was a developer of the Illinois Managed Care Reform and Patients Rights Act to protect physicians and patients from managed care interference in the delivery of health care; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Melczer authored instructional brochures and model policy documents and developed seminars to assist Illinois physicians with the understanding and implementation of the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act; and

WHEREAS, These HIPAA model policies and procedures have been adapted and used by physicians across the country; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Melczer served in leadership roles as the ISMS representative to the Workgroup for Electronic Data Interchange and guided Illinois physicians with the implementation and use of electronic health records; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Melczer gave generously of his time and expertise to serve on boards and commissions, including the Illinois Health Care Cost Containment Council, the Hospital Report Care Advisory Council, and the Illinois Health Care Credentials Council; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Melczer analyzed and recommended ISMS responses to federal legislative and regulatory Medicare and Medicaid proposals to determine impact on Illinois physicians; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Melczer encouraged all to "Find work that you love and do it well, but don't take it so seriously that you forget what really matters in life. Show your family you love them every day. Make this world a better place by sharing your time and talents. Teach yourself something new. Laugh. Be a good person, and thank God daily for all of our blessings."; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, THE SENATE CONCURRING HEREIN, that we honor the memory of Andrew H. Melczer, Ph.D., for his valuable and numerous contributions to the quality of health care in Illinois and for his many years of outstanding public service; and be it further
